

There is no one I can trust.

My parent used drugs
because of the way I acted.

I will not have a happy life.

If someone hadn't told, I would still have my family.

My parent didn't love me
because he/she chose drugs.

I will never have a forever family.

If I get close to someone, I'll just end up getting hurt.

I'll always get in trouble.
