

Does not share their feelings with others

Try to make others happy even if it isn't good for them

Does not ask for what they need and want

Lets other people use them

Stands up for themselves

Shares with others

Respects others

Does not use hitting to solve problems

Share their feelings with others

Thinks they are always right

Uses hitting to solve problems

Uses others to get what they want

Demands to get what they want

Wants things to be done their way

Has to come first

Teasing

Name-calling

Inappropriate sexual comments

Taunting

Threatening to cause harm

Leaving someone out on purpose

Embarrassing someone in public

Spreading rumors about someone

Telling other children not to be friends with someone

Hitting/kicking/pinching

Spitting

Tripping/pushing

Taking or breaking someone's things

Making mean or rude hand gestures

Sending mean text messages or emails about someone

Posting something mean about someone on Facebook

Posting an embarrassing picture or video of someone on Facebook

Speaking to a trusted adult if seeing a kid being pushed

Look at the kid being mean to you and telling him/her to stop in a calm, clear voice.

If speaking up to someone being mean to you seems too hard or not safe, walk away and stay away. Find an adult to stop the bullying on the spot.

Being nice to the kid that other people are mean to Saying something mean about someone's family

Asking someone new to the school to play with you

Helping your caregiver wash the dishes without him/her asking

Picking up trash in the yard without your caregiver asking

Doing homework right after school without being told

Asking your caregiver for help with homework if have a question

Giving the dog food and water so dog will be safe and happy

Petting the cat nicely

Saying "please" when asking someone for something

Opening the door for your caregiver at the store

Picking up toys in living room even though your younger cousin left them there

Telling a trusted adult when you do not feel safe